

SELF-ASSESSMENT – FILM REVIEW

1. Assess your film review. Check if you have included all the necessary features of a useful film review.

Step	Contents	Check
1st sentence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> think of an catching, interesting first sentence 	<input type="checkbox"/>
Introduction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> title of film year of production genre stars/actors and characters they play in the film director script setting personal expectation(s) background information in relation to this film 	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
Main part	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> short summary of the contents (rules for writing a summary!) but don't give away too much present main characters and their actors if necessary refer to soundtrack & special effects state your own opinion and give reason relate this film to others of the same genre and/or actor/ director 	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
Final comment/ conclusion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> recommendation of the film (groups, ages) strengths/weaknesses (intended) message of the film rating 	<input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>

2. Revise and improve your review after your assessment.